Learning outcomes

Upon completion of this course, each student must be able to:

1. Apply the linguistic codes and creative, technical and technological components of a range of non-fiction film forms in all phases of production: documentary, experimental, video art and film essay.
2. Harmonize the authorial vision of a piece of non-fiction with the communication and synergies that emerge from teamwork, which are essential to the materialization of the piece.
3. Control and use the specific film terminology of non-fiction formats, in both the written research paper and oral presentation.
4. Write an original literary script with an interesting and coherent structure, defined characters, plot and conflict.
5. Organize and coordinate the technical team for all phases of production, managing the paperwork that is generated before and during filming, obtaining all necessary permits/authorizations, etc.
6. Design a plan with a syntax that is coherent with the narrative and style of the work.
7. Create a stylized yet believable mise-en-scène, directing the male and female actors in accordance with the analysis of the characters, conflict and tone of the story.
8. Design and create lighting that works with the style of the project, generating an ambiance, atmosphere and mood that suit the narrative and the mise-en-scène.
9. Operate the camera and its accessories, with attention to framing and its integral parts such as position, height, movement, angle, shot size and depth of field.
10. Set up and operate the lighting and film equipment.
11. Observe the code of ethics of the film profession through fluid communication and teamwork.
12. Cut an audiovisual piece that respects the narrative of the literary script and shooting script, constructing a coherent film space and internal and external rhythms.
13. Design sound using material recorded during filming and/or effects and music in postproduction that help to create the narrative and tone of the story.

Assessment

GENERAL ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

ATTENDANCE

The classes are in-person, and attendance is mandatory, as it is a determining factor in the continuous assessment system, as well as in class attitude and participation. However, in exceptional cases due to health situations or family reconciliation, students may request online access as a methodological adaptation (for more information, please contact the student department).

MARKS

Continuous Assessment is a comprehensive assessment of each student's results judged on the assessment criteria described in the following section, on a scale of 0 to 10 as provided in current legislation.

Students wishing to bring up their grade in the extraordinary/re-assessment period must first contact the Registrar's Office to expressly waive in writing all of the marks they obtained in the regular assessment period. Their final assessment mark will be the mark obtained in re-assessment.

SPELLING AND EXPRESSION

Spelling and written expression are taken into account in the marking of written examinations and assignments. Written examinations cannot contain more than 2 spelling errors or 10 accent errors (omitted or misplaced). Assignments completed outside of the classroom may not contain more than 1 error.

UNIVERSITY WRITTEN REPORTS

These must have a title page, table of contents and bibliography listing at least 4 sources. These works must be original. Excerpts from other authors must be properly cited. Demonstrable plagiarism is an academic offense. If one student copies the work of another student, both shall be held accountable.

SPECIFIC ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

REGULAR ASSESSMENT PERIOD

The teaching team will provide the details/specifications on the content or submission of assessment tasks; this information will be given in class or in a document made available to the student on the Virtual Course Space (in Spanish, Aula Virtual).

Assignments not submitted by the deadlines set by the teaching team will receive an assessment mark of 0..

Assessment task (*)	Revaluable/non-revaluable	Minimum mark yes/no	% of final mark
SE2 Assignments and projects	Non reevaluable	Yes	60%
SE3 Continuous assessment: weekly tasks and homework, periodical reports, problem resolution	Non reevaluable	No	25%
SE5 Attitude and participation	Non reevaluable	No	15%
			100%

(*) Records and evidence of all of the assessment tasks (writings, recordings, etc.) listed in this table will be kept and filed in the Registrar's Office.

EXTRAORDINARY/RE-ASSESSMENT PERIOD

Students that do not pass the course in the term it is delivered can attempt again in the extraordinary/re-assessment period, except in cases where the characteristics of the course make this impossible.

The teaching team will inform the student of the assessment tasks that will need to be done in re-assessment. The teaching team can decide whether to maintain the marks of 5.0 and above the student received over the course and in the regular assessment period.

REVIEW OF ASSESSMENT MARKS

As set out in the TAI School of the Arts Student Handbook.
